

529 savings can be used for K–12 tuition

Your Maryland 529 plan is more flexible than ever. You can now use the money saved in your Maryland Senator Edward J. Kasemeyer College Investment Plan (MCIP) for tuition expenses of up to $10,000 each year at private, public, and religious K–12 schools—giving you more options for your child’s future. Using your MCIP Account to pay for K–12 tuition may be something to consider, especially if you have enough saved to fund both K–12 and college education for your child. Keep in mind that you can contribute up to a maximum aggregate Account balance of up to $500,000 for each Beneficiary (regardless of Account Holder), across all Maryland 529 Accounts for that Beneficiary.

What you need to know

- You can use up to $10,000 per year, per Beneficiary for tuition only.
- Distribution checks are made payable directly to the Account Holder or Beneficiary—not the K–12 private, public, or religious school.*
- Qualified distributions for K–12 tuition expenses are federally and Maryland State tax-free. If you are not a Maryland resident, you should discuss your state’s tax treatment of K–12 distributions with a qualified tax professional.*
- To use your Account for K–12 tuition, simply log in to your Account or complete the distribution form on our website.
- When you request a distribution for K–12 tuition, you will receive a IRS Form 1099Q. It’s the Account Holder’s responsibility to maintain adequate records and receipts showing the eligibility of the expense. If you have detailed tax questions, please consult your tax professional.
- If you choose to use your MCIP Account towards K–12 tuition, now may be a good time to evaluate your investment strategy to ensure your asset allocation matches your new timeline for using your Account.

*Distributions from 529 college savings plans for elementary or secondary education tuition expenses are federally and Maryland State tax-free. Outside of Maryland, state tax treatment will vary and could include state income taxes assessed, the recapture of previously deducted amounts from state taxes, and/or state-level penalties. You should consult with a tax or legal professional for additional information.
